10 Million New Voters Are Registered!!

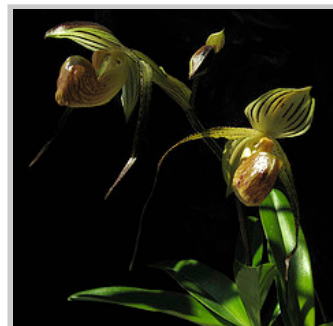

by Michael in New York on 10/29/2004 04:27:00 PM

Well, if nothing else, this election (and the fiasco of 2000) have energized Americans into taking their right to vote seriously. USA Today reports that 10 million new voters are on the rolls, almost promising a bit of chaos thanks to the new voters, new machines, new rules and batteries of lawyers and poll watchers spreading out all over the country.

You better get to the polls early -- they're anticipating the highest voter turnout in three decades.
