Anglican Church: Schism Over Gays More and More Likely

by Michael in New York on 2/25/2005 12:27:00 PM

The Anglican Church -- still reeling from the decision to treat women as equal in the eyes of God -- is now breaking apart over the issue of gays. In an unprecedented move, the leaders of the Anglican communion have asked the US and Canadian churches to "temporarily" withdraw members from a key international governing body.

In other words, in order to avoid splitting the Church, they're splitting the Church. Finally, the rightist leaders who can't bear to have women leading service or working at the highest levels of the church are getting their revenge on those wishy-washy leftists who believe all people are equal in the eyes of God.
