Another "Terror" Case Collapses

by Michael in New York on 9/08/2004 02:42:00 PM

USA Today reports yet another attempt to prosecute the war on terror has collapsed due to government incompetence or the simple fact that they may have rushed to prosecute a "spy ring" when there was no spy ring in the first place.

"Military prosecutors who accused an Air Force translator at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, of taking part in a spy ring that tried to pass more than 200 secret documents to U.S. enemies now say that only one of the documents was secret, the Air Force said Tuesday.

"The prosecutors' move, six months after the collapse of a case against a Muslim chaplain in the same probe, is fueling questions about whether there ever was a spy ring at Guantanamo."
