Bush Fated To Lose?

by Michael in New York on 7/26/2004 12:57:00 AM

A good analysis in the Sunday New York Times week-in-review section about President Bush's tipping point. Has Bush gone over-the-line from confident President to clueless incumbent who doesn't realize how out of step he is with the rest of the country? My favorite historical factoid: Only two incumbents in American history who lost the popular vote but won the election have ever faced reelection: John Quincy Adams and Benjamin Harrison. Both lost.
