Bush Hates Brave Americans

by Michael in New York on 10/04/2004 10:23:00 AM

Bush doesn't hate corruption or graft or cover-ups that waste our tax dollars and endanger national security. Nope, he hates the brave Americans -- aka "whistleblowers" -- who risk everything to expose these problems. The New York Times reports on Congress actually doing something good...and Bush trying to stop them. The first few graphs pretty much say it all:

"Over strenuous objections from the Bush administration, Congress is moving to increase protections for federal employees who expose fraud, waste and wrongdoing inside the government.

"Lawmakers of both parties say the measures are needed to prevent retaliation against such whistleblowers, who reveal threats to public health, safety and security.

"But the administration says the bill unconstitutionally interferes with the president's ability to control and manage the government."

Why does Bush hate brave Americans?
