Bush Sics IRS on NAACP

by Michael in New York on 10/29/2004 11:47:00 AM

Yep, Catholic bishops roam the country attacking Kerry and Bush smiles. Other churches collaborate with Bush by sharing their private registration roles for the purposes of campaigning and Bush nods. But when the NAACP's Julian Bonds gives a speech carefully crafted to criticize Bush but stay well within the guidelines of a non-partisan speech (a speech similar to many he and other NAACP leaders have delivered over the years) and suddenly the I.R.S. is investigating whethery they've blown their non-profit status. And it lets them know just a month before the election? What won't Bush do to win?
