Bush Thrilled Over Less Than Expected Job Numbers

by Michael in New York on 9/03/2004 02:08:00 PM

Why shouldn't George Bush be happy? The latest job figures show him on track for the best year of his presidency. Unfortunately for him, his BEST year is weaker than Bill Clinton's WORST year. The LA Times reports Kerry smartly putting it in perspective.

"Kerry, in a statement issued before his first campaign event today looked back at the overall loss of jobs across Bush's tenure, and said: 'President Bush is now certain to be the first president since the Great Depression to face re-election without creating a single job.

"'Since Herbert Hoover we have had eleven presidents: Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Harry Truman, Dwight Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy, Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon, Gerald Ford, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, George H. W. Bush and Bill Clinton. These presidents have faced wars and recessions, but not one of them has failed to create a single job,' Kerry said."

Kerry is starting to come out swinging strong on every issue. About time.
