Bush and Republicans Blasted By 9-11 Families

by Michael in New York on 10/28/2004 11:10:00 PM

Yep, the families of the 9-11 victims, the widows and children who forced Bush to create the 9-11 commission when he fought it tooth and nail, which forced White House officials to cooperate when they were stonewalling and didn't want to provide material or witnesses, which forced Bush to testify when he didn't want to are pissed again.

"The principal advocacy group for families of victims of the Sept. 11 attacks blamed President Bush and a group of House Republicans on Wednesday for the failure of Congress to approve a bill to enact the recommendations of the bipartisan Sept. 11 commission and overhaul the nation's intelligence agencies," says the New York Times.

"In a statement clearly meant to influence voters in next week's election, the group did not explicitly endorse Senator John Kerry, the Democratic presidential candidate, but said Mr. Bush had "allowed members of his own party to derail the legislative process." "

Yep, the two main groups Bush claims to be fighting for: the Iraqi people and the families of the 9-11 victims, DON'T SUPPORT BUSH. Why should anyone else?
