Could Bush Defend And Protect America During a Terrorist Strike?

by Michael in New York on 9/09/2005 09:18:00 PM

Brian Williams of NBC has a good online diary. John below highlighted Williams writing about the crackdown on the media: Bush couldn't control the looters or save lives, but he can sure as hell try and keep the media from showing the human death toll. Scroll down to Sept. 7 at 11:22 am and you find White House Correspondent David Gregory writing this:

Even more frightening is the question on every American's mind: Could the government handle a massive terror strike – the kind that Vice President Cheney and others warn us about?

We already have the answer. The next disaster has already struck and Bush has failed spectacularly. Could Bush handle a massive terror strike? Of course not. Just look at New Orleans.

Please take a moment to take our wholesome survey.

Thank you!
