Did Bush Leave Wiggle Room On Firing Any Leaker?

by Michael in New York on 7/12/2005 02:19:00 PM

Just got around to watching Good Morning America's take on the brewing Rove scandal. (Can we say Rovegate yet?). It aired a clip of Bush from Sept. 30 2003 in which Bush seemed to leave himself some wiggle room. Bush said:

If there's a leak out of my administration, I wanna know who it is. Uh...and...if the person has violated law, that person will be taken care of.

So if Rove isn't tried and found guilty of breaking a highly technical statute, he could get away with revealing national secrets and Bush could still stand by him. Did Bush always leave himself this wiggle room? Stay tuned as we track down his other statements.
