Major Alert: Bush Gutting AIDS Education

by Michael in New York on 8/09/2004 06:07:00 PM

A frightening article in LA Weekly by Doug Ireland details the "abstinence only" gutting of AIDS education around the country, an approach that most studies show will increase unsafe sex AND sexual activity. Ireland shows how Bush is changing CDC guidelines that would neuter educational material put out by groups all over the country, place political appointees into power for making health safety decisions (rather than trained medical personnel) and risking the lives of millions of people by replacing sound science with personal ideology.

Here's the CDC website with the same info in bureaucratese.
