My Brother Concedes! My Brother Concedes!

by Michael in New York on 11/02/2004 07:54:00 PM

At least a little. My brother in Pennsylvania -- who abstained from voting in that swing state after endless hectoring from me (he agreed not to vote for Bush but wasn't about to vote FOR Kerry and hey I'll take it) -- my brother has just conceded...well, not the election. But he's said for the first time that he believes Kerry might very well win. I was chided for expressing any butterflies on election eve (even though I used it as an excuse to exhort people to vote, vote, vote). But now that's it's election night and seeing the massive turnout, I feel very excited and positive. So who's cracking now?

Any stories out there about ardent Bush supporters -- family or friends --who are now suddenly very, very nervous?
