Ohio, Pennsylvania, Florida -- The Big Three Leaning Towards...

KERRY!! For the first time in the entire election, the LA Times electoral college map shows Kerry leading Bush in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Florida. For months, we've been told that whichever candidate wins two out of three of them will be tough to beat. I check the map almost every day -- it's really addictive fun to play around with the possibilities, since you can give any state to either candidate and thus toy with all sorts of possibilities -- and while it's been trending towards Kerry for a while, this is the FIRST TIME the latest polls that the LA Times use all give Kerry the edge. In Ohio, it's a six point lead, in Pennsylvania it's a five point lead, and in Florida it's only a one point lead (well within the margin of error, of course), but still -- Kerry is leading in all three.
