Start Brewing The Coffee...

by Michael in New York on 11/02/2004 11:24:00 PM

It's gonna be a long night. Our dream of an electoral college surprise and a major sweep in that category look unlikely. But it's great to see Kerry breathing down Bush's neck. We can still look forward to an electoral college victory and hopefully a popular vote victory that is more resounding. But Florida and Ohio look really tricky as far as getting the results tonight: in Florida, the Republican election supervisor estimates it will be THURSDAY before they can count all the absentee ballots. Similar delays might occur in Ohio. That's a lot of coffee.
