"The struggle for the soul of America is gathering pace...."

by Michael in New York on 9/06/2005 02:30:00 AM

The Independent UK has an insightful, challenging editorial about the challenges facing America:

We could be witnessing a significant moment in America. Hurricane Katrina has revealed some uncomfortable truths about the world's richest and most powerful nation. The catastrophe in New Orleans exposed shocking inequalities - both of wealth and race - and also the relative impotence of the federal authorities when faced with a large-scale disaster. Many Americans are beginning to ask just what sort of country they are living in.... There is a sense that the struggle for the soul of America is gathering pace.
