Torturing Iraqis Doesn't Work So Well

by Michael in New York on 9/07/2004 06:44:00 PM

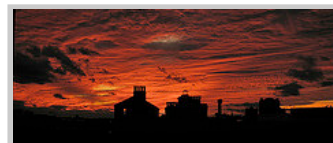

The military honcho who imported the abusive, shameful rape, torture and beating-to-death treatment of prisoners from Guantanamo Bay to Iraq -- Maj. Gen. Geoffrey Miller -- now admits that treating prisoners doesn't just comply with international law, US military law, and the standards of decency that all Americans expect. It actually WORKS BETTER too.

Miller should be in disgrace and out of uniform, but at least he can admit when he's wrong, unlike Bush. By the way, I wouldn't characterize this approach as "gentler." They're simply the minimal standards for any humane society that has a prisoner under its control.
