Vatican Cleans House (Sort Of)

by Michael in New York on 8/15/2004 03:26:00 PM

That seminary in Austria that was accused of widespread sexual misconduct, harboring computers with more than 40,000 pornographic images and videos (including shots of little boys, bestiality and violent sexual scenarios) has finally been shut down a year after the scandal first broke.

But Bishop Kung -- who dismissed all this as "boyish pranks" -- is still in power and Bishop Kreen (a far right conservative) only shut the seminary down after resisting as long as possible. In classic "it was only a few soldiers" mode, Kreen blamed it all on a few seminarians.
