

ON TV THIS WEEK

SUNDAY, FEB. 4

■ "Super Bowl XLI" See Billy Joel sing the national anthem, check out Prince's halftime show, rate the ads or wager on the game. But you have to watch. (CBS, 6:30 p.m.)

■ "Criminal Minds" Following the Bowl is an episode where the "CM" team investigates a murder at a Super Bowl party broadcast over the Internet. James Van Der Beek guests. Part 2 is Wed. at 9 p.m. (CBS, 10 p.m.)

■ "The Sally Lockhart Mysteries: Ruby in the Smoke" A Victorian-era "Nancy Drew," this is the first in a series of TV movies from the novels by "Golden Compass" author Philip Pullman. (PBS, 9 p.m.)

MONDAY, FEB. 5

■ "Two and a Half Men" Brooke Shields plays a new neighbor so similar to fussy budget Alan (Jon Cryer) that Charlie (Charlie Sheen) thinks they're the perfect couple. Will Alan move out for good? Wasn't that an "Odd Couple" episode? (CBS, 9 p.m.)

■ "Everybody Hates Chris" Jason Alexander plays the principal of Chris' school and they're the only two to show up for class amid a snowstorm. (The CW, 8 p.m.)

TUESDAY, FEB. 6

■ "The Unit" A shrink (Linda Hunt) is called in to investigate the meaning of a dream while the team is on a mission in North Korea. In another new episode at 10, they go to Iran. (CBS, 9 p.m.)

■ "Billy Strayhorn: Lush Life" Terrence Howard hosts this look at Duke Ellington's most important collaborator, composer Billy Strayhorn, whose credits include "Take the A Train." (PBS, 10 p.m.)

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 7

▶ "Lost: Survivor Guide" An hour-long recap of all the goings-on so far in the hit cliff-hanger series, followed by a new episode at 10 p.m. By then, viewers shouldn't be so lost. (ABC, 9 p.m.)

■ "The Ellen Degeneres Show" Ellen marks her 600th show with Christina Aguilera and probably a little jig. (NBC, 4 p.m.)

■ "The Sci-Fi Boys" Documentary about the pioneers of popular sci-fi (like author Ray Bradbury and F/X pioneer Ray Harryhausen). Interviews with George Lucas,

THURSDAY, FEB. 8

■ "Survivor: Fiji" The 14th installment of the reality hit includes hidden immunity idols, and one camp loaded with supplies while the other is bare-bones. (CBS, 8 p.m.)

■ "Ugly Betty" Betty's (America Ferrera) little brother Justin (Mark Indelicato) gets in trouble at school. (ABC, 8 p.m.)

■ "Bastards of the Party" This documentary looks at Los Angeles gangs through the eyes of ex-Bloods member Cle Shaheed Sloan. Produced by Antoine Fuqua, director of "Training Day." (HBO, 10 p.m.)

FRIDAY, FEB. 9

■ "The Ghost Whisperer" Cheerleaders are everywhere! On "Heroes," "Friday Night Lights" and, tonight, on "TGW," as Mary J. Blige guest stars as the coach of a squad haunted by spirits. Rah-rah! (CBS, 8 p.m.)

■ "Cory in the House" In this "Fresh Prince of Bel-Air" for a new generation, Cory's dad is the personal chef for the President. In this episode, the President shows up for his daughter's career day but is outshone by another father. (Disney, 8:30 p.m.)

SATURDAY, FEB. 10

■ "Pro Bowl from Honolulu" One final dose of football as the all-stars from the AFC and NFC face off. Peyton Manning and Drew Brees are set to QB. (CBS, 6 p.m.)

■ "Pebble Beach National Pro-Am" Celebrities can sing and dance (or they think they can), so why shouldn't they play golf? The annual pro-am finds Bill Murray, Ray Romano and Kevin Costner trying to imitate
