

ON TV THIS WEEK

SUNDAY, APRIL 29

- ☒ "The Sopranos" AJ (Robert Iler) decides his future tonight. Will he follow in his dad's bloody footsteps? Will his dad (James Gandolfini) let him? (HBO, 9 p.m.)
- ☒ "Angels in America: The Opera" Tony Kushner's epic play is set to music in this acclaimed production. (PBS, 10 p.m.)
- ☒ "Dogs That Changed the World" The conclusion of this two-parter about man's best friend. Hosted by F. Murray Abraham. (PBS, 8 p.m.)

MONDAY, APRIL 30

- ☒ "How I Met Your Mother" Barney (Neil Patrick Harris) suspects game-show icon Bob Barker might be his real dad. Talk about a showcase showdown! (CBS, 8 p.m.)
- ☒ "Dancing With the Stars" It's silly, it's sequin-y and it's irresistible. "Idol," watch your back. (ABC, 8 p.m.)
- ☒ "Heroes" Hiro's surprised to see a future where people with special powers are treated as freaks. (NBC, 9 p.m.)

TUESDAY, MAY 1

- ☒ "American Idol" Jon Bon Jovi mentors the kids on rock night. Hey LaKisha! Think Tina Turner. (Fox, 8 p.m.)
- ☒ "Law & Order: Criminal Intent" A female astronaut is found murdered, and Space Shuttle commander Tate Donovan wishes he were on the moon when suspicion falls on him. Anyone here wearing adult diapers? (NBC, 9 p.m.)
- ☒ "The Shield" Vic (Michael Chiklis) comes dangerously close to the truth about a murder. (FX, 10 p.m.)

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2

- ☒ "Criminal Minds" Is someone stalking the most dangerous game in Idaho? That's what the team believes when they investigate human bodies in the wilderness. (CBS, 9 p.m.)
- ☒ "American Masters: Atlantic Records" Can't-miss doc about music legend Ahmet Ertegun, who championed Ruth Brown, Aretha Franklin and others. (PBS, 9 p.m.)
- ☒ "Medium" Allison (Patricia Arquette) puts Jason Priestley behind bars for murdering his wife, but she might be wrong. Maybe the arrival of her friend Neve Campbell (in a three-episode arc) distracted her? (NBC, 10 p.m.)

THURSDAY, MAY 3

- ☒ "Grey's Anatomy" Addison (Kate Walsh) visits friends in L.A., giving us a glimpse of an upcoming spinoff. (ABC, 9 p.m.)
- ☒ "Smallville" The show goes retro when Jimmy is hit on the head and dreams of Clark, Lana, Lex and others living in the 1940s. Finally, a phone booth! (CW, 8 p.m.)
- ☒ "Spider-Man Tech" Experts look at Spidey's powers and discuss what's conceivable and what's fantasy. Seems being bitten by a radioactive spider won't make you look like Tobey Maguire. (History, 8 p.m.)

- ☒ "CSI" Grissom and the gang meet UFO fanatics (including Ally Sheedy and Julie Hagerty) who think aliens are mating with humans to control the world. And you thought L.A. was kooky. (CBS, 9 p.m.)

FRIDAY, MAY 4

- ☒ "High School Musical: The Concert" Highlights from the recent tour. If you have kids under age 15, it will be on your TV tonight. (Disney, 9 p.m.)
- ☒ "Stargate: Atlantis" McKay (David Hewlett) acquires higher mental powers while Zellerka (David Nykl) is nearly killed. Talk about luck. (SciFi, 9 p.m.)

SATURDAY, MAY 5

- ☒ "Kentucky Derby" The most exciting two minutes in sports arrives at Churchill Downs, as one thoroughbred becomes a star and for a day everyone's an expert on horse flesh. (NBC, 4:30 p.m.) Michael Giltz
