

ON TV THIS WEEK

SUNDAY, JUNE 3

- ENTOURAGE The Season 3 finale has Vince (Adrian Grenier) leaving his mansion behind and saying hello to making his dream project, "Medellin," happen on his own terms. (HBO, 10 p.m.)
- SHOT IN THE DARK "Entourage" star Grenier gets an early jump on Father's Day by making this documentary about the search for his biological dad. (HBO, 10:30 p.m.)

MONDAY, JUNE 4

- LIVE WITH REGIS AND KELLY Reege and Ripa salute the Great White Way as a run-up to the Tonys with their week-long "sampling" of some of the best in musical theater, starting today. (WABC 7, 9 a.m.)
- CREATURE COMFORTS Offbeat series in which stop-motion clay animals tell human stories. Hey, CBS: If Katie quits, will this idea work for the news? (CBS, 8 p.m.)

- EX-WIVES CLUB This reality show offers support for gals who've been dumped, including a woman from upstate New York whose self-image needs a boost. Being on "Ex-Wives Club" should fix that. (ABC, 9 p.m.)

TUESDAY, JUNE 5

- THE SHIELD The sixth season finale finds Vic (Michael Chiklis) right where he always is: in that murky area between justice and revenge. (FX, 10 p.m.)
- THE OPRAH WINFREY SHOW Big O snags a rare TV interview with reclusive author Cormac McCarthy, who can talk about his postapocalyptic book "The Road" and the upcoming film version of his "No Country for Old Men." (WABC 7, 4 p.m.)
- 2007 ALMA AWARDS Sexy "Desperate Housewives" star Eva Longoria hosts a tribute to Latino talent. (ABC, 9 p.m.)

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6

- TYLER PERRY'S HOUSE OF PAYNE The debut of a sitcom about a multigenerational African-American family in Atlanta headed by a firefighter. (TBS, 9 p.m.)
- HIDDEN PALMS Greta (Amber Heard) decides there's nothing sexier (and more threatening) than a friend from rehab when Nikki (Tessa Thompson) shows up to reconnect with fellow 12-stepper Johnny (Taylor Handley). (CW, 8 p.m.)
- AMERICAN INVENTOR The second season of this reality show about wanna-be Edisons begins. But nowhere in sight is someone who can invent summer programming that isn't awash in reality TV. (ABC, 9 p.m.)

THURSDAY, JUNE 7

- FAST CARS & SUPERSTARS NASCAR drivers help celebs get behind the wheel, with tennis star Serena Williams yelping her way through a challenge and Laird Hamilton nonplussed by the high speeds and tough turns. (ABC, 8 p.m.)
- SPEEDERS A new "Cops"-like series, but focused only on really bad drivers — like street racers coming up with lame excuses and teenagers too drunk to explain themselves. Sadly, Lindsay Lohan is not the host. (Court TV, 8 p.m.)

- LATE SHOW WITH DAVID LETTERMAN Author, actress and commentator Amy Sedaris is one of Dave's favorite guests and is always guaranteed to provide some kooky sunshine. That lil' charmer! (CBS, 11:30 p.m.)

FRIDAY, JUNE 8

- NED'S DECLASSIFIED SCHOOL SURVIVAL GUIDE Will Ned (Devon Werkheiser) be snogging with Suzie (Christian Serratos) or Moze (Lindsey Shaw) when he makes like Ferris Bueller and plays hooky at the botanical gardens? Kids, the answers are here. (Nickelodeon, 8 p.m.)
- STARGATE: SG1 Goofy Fred Willard guest-stars as a weaselly guy willing to trade info about an attack by Akrad in exchange for safe passage to Earth. (SciFi, 8 p.m.)
- EDGE OF EXISTENCE A new documentary about a Papua New Guinean group of ancient people called the "Insect Tribe" (no kidding), which was only discovered 50 years ago. (Discovery, 8 p.m.)

SATURDAY, JUNE 9

- SHREDDERMAN RULES! Devon Werkheiser goes from the supercool Ned to the geeky Nolan Byrd, who uses a Web site to exact revenge on bullies in this TV-movie based on the best seller by Wendelin Van Draanen. (Nickelodeon, 8 p.m.)
- ICE SPIDERS Giant spiders attack a ski resort. What else do you need to know? (SciFi, 9 p.m.)
- YOU'VE GOT A FRIEND John Schneider, erstwhile "Dukes of Hazzard" bad boy Bo Duke, can't get away from cars. Here, he plays a Vietnam vet who helps an orphan build the soapbox car the kid's dad didn't live to finish. (Hallmark, 9 p.m.) Michael Giltz
