

ON TV THIS WEEK

SUNDAY, SEPT. 2

■ "Entourage" In the season finale, the boys travel to Cannes to push "Medellin." (HBO, 10 p.m.)

MONDAY, SEPT. 3

■ "Justin Timberlake: FutureSexLoveShow" He brought sexy back; here's the proof. The one-time Mousketeer rocks Madison Square Garden. (HBO, 9 p.m.)

TUESDAY, SEPT. 4

■ "The View" Say hello to Whoopi (and guest Danny DeVito) as she joins the chatfest. (ABC, 11 a.m.)

■ "Late Show With David Letterman" Former Prez Bill Clinton (future First Hubby?) pops in. (CBS, 11:30 p.m.)

■ "Dale" A new two-hour documentary about the late Dale Earnhardt, who remains a major NASCAR legend. (CMT, 8 p.m.)

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 5

■ "Costas Now" Sportscaster and interviewer extraordinaire Bob Costas focuses on the NFL. (HBO, 9 p.m.)

THURSDAY, SEPT. 6

■ "Mad Men" This sharp, entertaining series about ad executives back when businessmen had compliant secretaries and liquid lunches remains a pleasure. (AMC, 10 p.m.)

FRIDAY, SEPT. 7

■ "Fashion Rocks" Jeremy Piven hosts this special celebrating the convergence of fashion and music via top designers and performances from the likes of Aerosmith, Alicia Keys, Carrie Underwood, Usher and many more. (CBS, 9 p.m.)

■ "Doctor Who" The finale of a nifty two-parter in which the good Doctor hides in England circa 1913 as a headmaster who doesn't know his true identity. (SciFi, 8 p.m.)

SATURDAY, SEPT. 8

■ U.S. Open Women's Finals The best day of tennis all year has the men's semis at noon and the women's final tonight. Will one (or both) of the Williams sisters vie for another Slam? Stay tuned. (CBS, 8 p.m.)
